

PLAINFIELD, N. J., April 23.—Albert Henry Bowman, for thirty years a member of the New York Produce Exchange, died at his home in Dunellen Avenue here to-day. He suffered a stroke of paralysis on Friday last while superintending some work in his garden. He was 63 years old, and is survived by a widow, three sons, and three daughters.

Charles S. Havens.

Charles S. Havens died suddenly of heart trouble yesterday in his store at Centre Moriches, L. I. He was 71 years old. Mr. Havens was a prominent Democrat, and served in the Assembly for a number of years. He was also Supervisor. Ex-State Senator John L. Havens is his only son. He is survived by his widow and several daughters.

Obituary Notes.

Col. J. W. RENFROE, formerly State Treasurer of Georgia, and Postmaster of Atlanta under President Cleveland, died at his home in Sandersville, Ga., yesterday, aged 76 years.

AUGUSTUS POLLOCK, tobacco manufacturer, died at Wheeling, W. Va., yesterday, aged 76 years. He was one of the founders of the Pittsburg, Chicago, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad.

JEREMIAH McCARTHY, a well-known man on Washington Heights, died at his residence, 165th Street and Audubon Avenue, yesterday, aged 85. He was a native of Ireland, and settled on Washington Heights fifty-six years ago. He leaves a son and five daughters.

CHARLES OLMSTEAD, President of the Merchants' National Banking Company, of Fostoria, O., died suddenly in that city yesterday. He was a brother-in-law and business associate of the late Charles Foster, former United States Treasurer, and Governor of Ohio.

WILLIAM PEARCE, one of the oldest and best-known residents of the East New York section of Brooklyn, died on Sunday at his home, 1,517 Herkimer Street. He was born ninety-one years ago in England, and was for many years in business as a florist and nurseryman in East New York. For the last ten years he had lived retired.

HENRY R. PUTNAM, who died at Pasadena, Cal., last Thursday, was born in Brooklyn in 1851, and after studying in the Polytechnic Institute, that borough, became a clerk in the office of Bliss, Fabyan & Co. Overwork caused him to contract consumption eighteen years ago, and he has since lived at Pasadena. He leaves a widow, one son, and one daughter.