

Incorporated in New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 20.—The Nevada Company, a mining concern, to-day filed a certificate increasing its capital stock from $500,000 to $1,000,000. The certificate has the signatures of the owners of more than two-thirds of the capital stock, as required by law. Anson Phelps Stokes of New York holds 3,247 of the 5,000 shares.

Articles were also filed consolidating the Raritan Electric Light and Power Company, the Bound Brook Electric Light, Heat and Power Company, the Dunellen Electric Light Company, the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of New Brunswick, the Railway Electric Company, and the Middlesex Electric Company into the Central Electric Company, and increasing the capital stock of the latter from $100,000 to $750,000. The officers of the consolidated company are: President—Phil N. Jackson; Vice President—Adrian Riker; Secretary—L. B. Howard Gilmour; Treasurer—Uzal H. McCarter, all of Newark.

Articles were also filed incorporating the Wayland Portland Cement Company, with a capital of $800,000. Incorporators: F. J. McGrae, Daniel P. Collins, and Charles E. Hoffman, all of Jersey City.

The New York Times

Published: December 21, 1900
Copyright © The New York Times