

BREAKING CLAY PIGEONS.

SECOND DAY'S SHOOT OF THE MIDDLESEX GUN CLUB.

Between 3,000 and 4,000 clay pigeons were shot at Danellen, N. J., yesterday, where the Middlesex Gun Club is holding its annual tournament. The attendance was not as large as on the previous day, but there were large entries in all the events, and some fine shooting was done. Harvey McMulchy of Syracuse, N. Y., one of the champion shots of America, put in an appearance, and both he and Carter of Hammonia, Ill., the champion wing shot of the United States, did excellent work. Carter in one of the extra sweepstakes made an extraordinary shot. He was shooting at a Keystone target and forgot to cock his gun, and did not discover his error until the bird had been sprung. He then cocked his gun, fired, and broke the bird when within two feet of the ground.

To-day the shooting will be at live birds, and a large attendance of fine shots is expected. Among these are Brewer of Philadelphia; Tom Ely, Frank Kleinz of Philadelphia; C. K. Hedden, Sam Castle, and D. Cannon, the one-armed shooter, of Newark. Quite a number of spectators are expected. Yesterday one old man walked 14 miles to the grounds, thinking it was a live-bird shoot, and his disappointment was keen after paying his quarter and discovering that only clay pigeons were being shot.

The results were as follows:
