

Klenz, from the 30-yard mark, tied for first, killing all their birds. They divided. Graham took second, killing 19. Budd took third, with 18, and Brewer fourth, with 17.

In the first clay pigeon shoot Budd was first, with 8. In the next, at 25, Stice hit 19 and took first. Budd and Brewer hit 18 each and divided second. Stice and Budd divided the last contest, hitting 9 each.

THE WINNERS AT DUNELLEN.

In the fourth day's contests of the Middlesex Gun Club Tournament at Dunellen, N. J., yesterday, the Western men held their own. The birds were very poor. The first event was a sweepstakes of five birds each, $10 entrance, 17 entries. Eight tied for first, killing five straight. H. White, Dickens, James, and Smith divided on the shoot-off. Seven killed four. White, Stice, and Graham killed 11 each and then divided. Williams and Davis took third money.

A contest at 20 pigeons, $25 entrance, Hurlingham rules, 10 entries, followed. Stice and
