

SUDDEN DEATHS AT DUNELLEN.

David D. Stelle Expired in His Bed and C. F. Sutphen in a Chair.

Special to The New York Times.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Dec. 3.—Two of the oldest residents of Dunellen died in that place to-day.

Early this morning David D. Stelle was found dead in bed by his sister, Mrs. Hubbell Hayes. He was seventy-one years of age. Heart disease was given as the cause of death.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon C. F. Sutphen, aged eighty-one years, was found dead sitting in his chair. The discovery was made by Mary Van Arsdale, his housekeeper. Mr. Sutphen was related to the late John S. Sutphen, a wealthy New York merchant.

SAMUEL SEABURY HONORED.

Single-Tax Advocates Dine the City Court Judge-Elect.

Single tax friends of Samuel Seabury, City Court Judge-elect, gave a dinner in his honor last night at the Hotel Marlborough. About sixty persons sat down to dinner, and most of them made speeches congratulatory to the guest of honor.

Charles F. Adams presided. Lawson Purdy, who was the first speaker, said that the election of Mr. Seabury was a triumph of the single taxers. Henry George, Jr., who followed, said it was the hour of triumph, and that Samuel Seabury was the first to be elected to judicial power by the vote of the people.

TROTTING CASES HEARD.

Board of Review Has Many Cases for Reinstatement to Consider—Will Meet Again To-day.

Matters of legal interest to owners of trotting horses were discussed yesterday at the Murray Hill Hotel, when the Board of Review of the National Trotting Association began its sessions in the morning. There are a large number of cases to be considered, and the session will be continued to-day and probably to-morrow. President P. P. Johnson of Lexington, Ky., presided, and the other members present were George W. Archer of Rochester, W. H. Gocher of Hartford, Charles D. Palmer of Lowell, U. C. Blake of Cedar Rapids, John H. Shults of Port Chester, N. Y.; W. R. Allen of St. Louis. E. P. Heald of the Pacific district was the only absent member.

George W. Ough, President of the village of Albion, N. Y., appeared before the board to defend himself of suspicions regarding his racing the horse Doctor H. at the Orleans County Fair in 1900. It was later found that the horse had formerly been known as Tally Ho in Michigan, but Mr. Ough showed conclusively that he purchased the horse in good faith, knowing nothing of its former career. The horse has won $215. The board, however, ordered Ough suspended until all unlawful winnings are returned, and the horse is to be suspended until the recording fee for change of name is paid.

Dr. J. A. Deane of Cairo, N. Y., appeared as Director of the Catskill Driving Park in an action to compel Mrs. H. D. Gill of this city to pay the entry fees for Jack and Parkville Prince, raced on Aug. 14 at the Park. C. L. Elwood of the Orange County Agricultural Society, brought up the question of the winnings of a colt, Soreno, owned by E. H. Tuttle. The horse won a race last November, but the society had it printed that a horse should take but one money. Three entries of $50 had been paid, however, and a premium of $100 was to be given. Mr. Tuttle claimed the whole money and the board allowed him $150.

The request of John J. Timmins of this city to vacate the suspension imposed upon him and his horse, Harry Davis, by the New York Trotting Association on Aug. 31 last was denied. A large number of out of town cases were heard, many of them being requests for releases from suspensions.
