
John Sanderson.

CATSKILL, N. Y., May 21.—John Sanderson, County Judge and Surrogate of Greene County from 1889 to 1900, died suddenly this evening at the home of his son-in-law, Dr. E. E. Elliott, of this place. He was in his sixty-ninth year.

Obituary Notes.

The Rev. Father KERR died at the home of his father, in Clinton, N. J., yesterday, from consumption. He was ordained to the priesthood a year ago by the late Archbishop Corrigan. He had been pastor of St. John's Cathedral Church at Dunnellen. The funeral services will be held at Clinton tomorrow.

The New York Times

Published: May 22, 1902

Copyright © The New York Times